14 & 15 AUGUST 2015 | DOUBLE TREE HILTON, ALICE SPRINGS, NT

MESSAGE FROM CONVENOR

As convenor of the Australia & New Zealand Vulvovaginal Society (ANZVS) 2015 Update Meeting, I am delighted to welcome delegates to Alice Springs for two days of workshops on sexual health and menopause and an update on vulval and vaginal diseases.

This year, the program will commence with two workshops on Friday. Dr Tonia Mezzini, Sexual Health Physician, will present an interactive workshop on STI diagnosis and treatment.

The Australasian Menopause Society will provide a Menopause Essentials Update led by Dr Anna Fenton, AMS President and Dr Jane Elliott, AMS Past President. This workshop will focus on the latest evidence-based information on the management of menopause:

- Menopause: What is it?
- HRT: Risks and benefits
- How to manage menopause
- Low libido and testosterone

The ANZVS Update Meeting will be held on Saturday. Participants are invited to submit unusual cases for discussion during the clinicopathological session.

This meeting will be valuable to specialists, trainees and generalists; beginners and experts.

Please join us in Alice Springs in August.

Ann Olsson, Convenor
