REGISTRATION BROCHURE

The Australia and New Zealand Vulvovaginal Society is hosting the 2018 Biennial Scientific Meeting at Hotel W in Brisbane from 9-11 November 2018. The focus of this meeting is STIs and we are delighted to welcome Dr Marc Steben as the keynote speaker.

The first day of the meeting will be devoted to our popular ANZVS Update on Vulvovaginal Disorders program. The scientific sessions will follow on Saturday and Sunday. As always, we have scheduled a clinicopathological case discussion segment and invite you to submit interesting and/or perplexing vulval cases. Our speakers herald from diverse and multidisciplinary backgrounds, and we hope that you will join us for a weekend of stimulating science and pleasant interaction with your colleagues.
